Dear Kai, dear all,

Thank you again for the valuable feedback on the early draft of the committee's workshop agenda. I'm pleased to share an updated draft following the committee meeting yesterday.

We are looking forward to the opportunity to discuss this with you and to moving forward with arrangements for the workshop. In this regard, we are being asked to announce the workshop on our website in approximately a week's time. As you may also appreciate, given that the committee is requesting pre-recorded presentations, we will need to be moving forward expeditiously with securing speakers and organizing the interventions.

Thank you again,
Wishing you a wonderful weekend,
Kate
